BREAKING NEWS: REGAL PAINT CENTERS COMES TO ORLANDO

ORLANDO – Regal Paint Centers expanded operations in the Greater Orlando area on May 1, 2016. With the purchase of both Watkins Paint locations (N. Orange Avenue, Orlando and Orange Avenue, Winter Park) and Osceola Paint in Kissimmee, Regal Paint Centers is now poised to deliver both premium residential and commercial products from leading paint manufacturer, Benjamin Moore. A grand opening celebration will be hosted this summer.

“With this expansion, Regal Paint Centers will provide the Orlando painting community with the finest quality products and services,” said President Steve Rasmussen. “We look forward to continuing our reputation as the premier Benjamin Moore retailer in the Southeast market.”

Regal Paint Center was established in 1973 with its first location in downtown Lake Worth, Florida. Original owner Neil Rasmussen operated the store until the late 1980s with the help of his son and current owner, Steve Rasmussen. In Regal’s 43-year history, it has grown to be one of the largest Benjamin Moore paint suppliers in the Southeast. Regal Paint Centers currently has 15 stores in six counties servicing Southeast and Central Florida from Miami to the Greater Orlando Area. The stores are staffed with highly-trained personnel who specialize in all types of painting projects, from homeowners to condominiums to commercial painting. With decades of experience with property management including HOA and commercial real-estate, Regal Paint Centers are qualified and prepared to provide exceptional support for your every painting project need. As Regal continues to expand, you will receive the same level of excellent service, quality products and competitive prices at every Regal Paint Center location throughout the greater Orlando area.

Regal is NOW OPEN to SERVE YOU and to help MEET YOUR PAINT NEEDS in the Orlando, Florida market.
